

Preservation Engineer

Due to increased assignments, both in Norway and abroad, we are now looking for a skilled Preservation engineer to join our successful and energetic team. We are located in Norway, HQ Stavanger, but this position will mainly be seated at customers site at various places around the world. Tasks and assignments will vary due to customers spec, but mainly the tasks will be as follow:

Main tasks

- Prepare strategy and plan, coordinate, execute and document preservation, maintenance and inspection activities.
- Be familiar with project Preservation requirement's and Client Specs.
- Prepare Preservation activities from Vendor delivery till hand over to Client.
- Assist Client to maintain Preservation requirements post hand over to operation.
- Prepare project specific preservation requirements to Disciplines, as required.
- Populate in PCS preservation schedule against the Tags and activate Start/stop date and specific preservation schedule for vendor requirements.
- Maintain in PCS Tag to location information (Warehouse, workshop, offshore).
- Issue Weekly preservation check list across project activated components.
- Ensure preservation status is up to date in PCS for hand over at RFC.
- Monitoring/survey preservation implementation.
- Some travelling must be expected both onshore/offshore and abroad.

Qualifications

- Higher education holding a bachelor's degree, or equivalent work experience.
- Long and relevant experience can compensate for lack of formal education
- Min. 5 years' experience within relevant discipline
- Knowledge and access of the following systems: Adobe and general Ms Office.
- Knowledge with the following systems is profitable: Meridan, IFS, ProArc, SAP, Procosys, PIMS CMS
- Good skills in Norwegian and English language, verbal and written

Required interpersonal skills

- Have the ability to work independently and in a team
- Good cooperation skills
- Able to make decisions and push actions through the organisation
- Knowledge in relevant laws and regulations and industry standards like ISO, API and NORSOK
- Good understanding of overall project/ work processes and procedures
- Capable of solving technical issues
- Proactive and focused on safety
- Management skills
- Good communication skills.

For more information or application please contact:

Operations Manager Glenn Sinnes

Glenn.sinnes@presserv.com

Phone: +47 913 62 687